

Submit a cosmetic product notification

When you need to submit a cosmetic product notification

If you are making cosmetic products available to consumers in Great Britain (GB: England, Scotland, and Wales), you must notify your cosmetic products using the Submit cosmetic product notifications service.

Who can submit a notification

The cosmetic product 'responsible person' can submit a notification.

A responsible person, who must be established in the UK, can be either:

- the manufacturer
- the importer
- the distributor, if they label the product as their own (for example, using their brand name)
- an appointed company or person (who is authorised by the manufacturer or the importer)

Before you start

Make sure you have:

- the category and name of the cosmetic product
- the name of the responsible person
- where the Product Information File (PIF) is kept
- details of a named contact for urgent enquiries
- details of any nanomaterials the cosmetic product contains
- details of any carcinogenic, mutagenic, or toxic for reproduction (CMR) substances the cosmetic product contains
- the chemical details of substances
- a summary of the ingredients
- an image of the product's label
- a photograph of the cosmetic product packaging
